Winter

With nature by your side, the ways to have fun under blue skies are endless!
A sports & recreation park for everyone to enjoy!

Sanuki Airport park is a large park facility adjacent to Takamatsu Airport. Developed for the purpose of preserving the natural environment around the airport, the park provides a leisure and relaxation “communication” space with the aims of promoting social interaction, enjoying the open sky, and becoming one with nature. The park includes a country zone, Porthill Zone, Adventure Zone and Sky Zone, not to mention the four seasons to enjoy by strolling the park paths. Visitors can also enjoy sports and recreation in the expansive grounds. Come enjoy life here with your family, friends and in groups!

Multipurpose Area

Adventure Zone

The Adventure Zone is a recent park addition. Boasting the largest grass grounds in the prefecture, the adventure zone is waiting for everyone to enjoy with its kids play area and large viewing grounds to see planes from the airport.

Grass grounds

Sky Zone

Located to the west of the airport, visitors to our sky zone can look up on aircraft as they take off from the airport. The sky zone features a large flower garden that changes with the seasons, and a rope net play area. Enjoy nature first hand in the sky zone during a stroll along the green covered promenade.

Grass skiing

The park features a 200 m long slope covered with natural grass. The advanced course takes expert skiers to the top in a lift, with a beginners course starting from the middle section. A separate sled slope is popular among toddlers. Enjoy the rush of cruising through the wind as you carve out tracks in the green.

Porthill Zone

Located in the center of the airport park, the Porthill Zone features a children's area filled with play equipment that is popular with kids. Check out the cloud-shaped cave structure or memorial grounds with fountains surrounding a water area. The area also has an event space to be enjoyed by family, friends or groups for various sporting events and other gatherings.
